

Automate Form-Based Processes

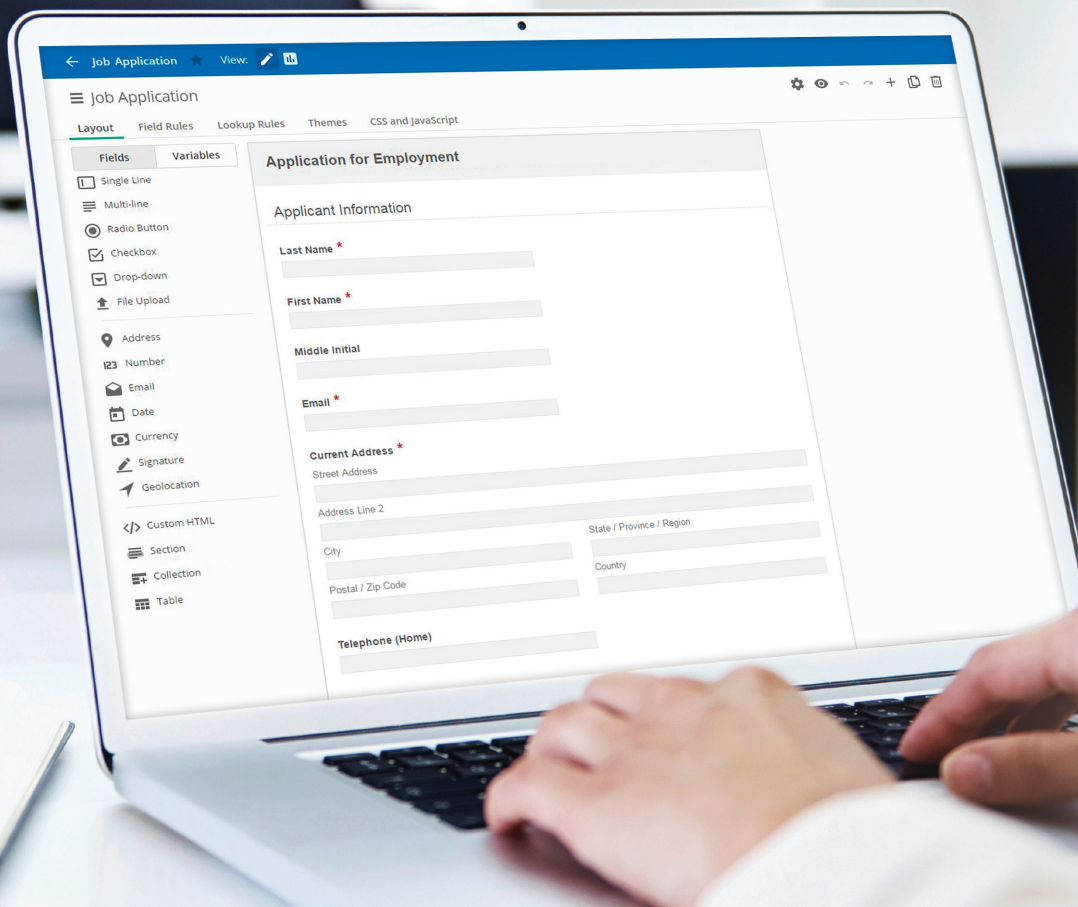

Laserfiche Forms is a web forms software that makes it easy to digitally capture, route and approve forms enterprise-wide.

Build Web Forms in Minutes

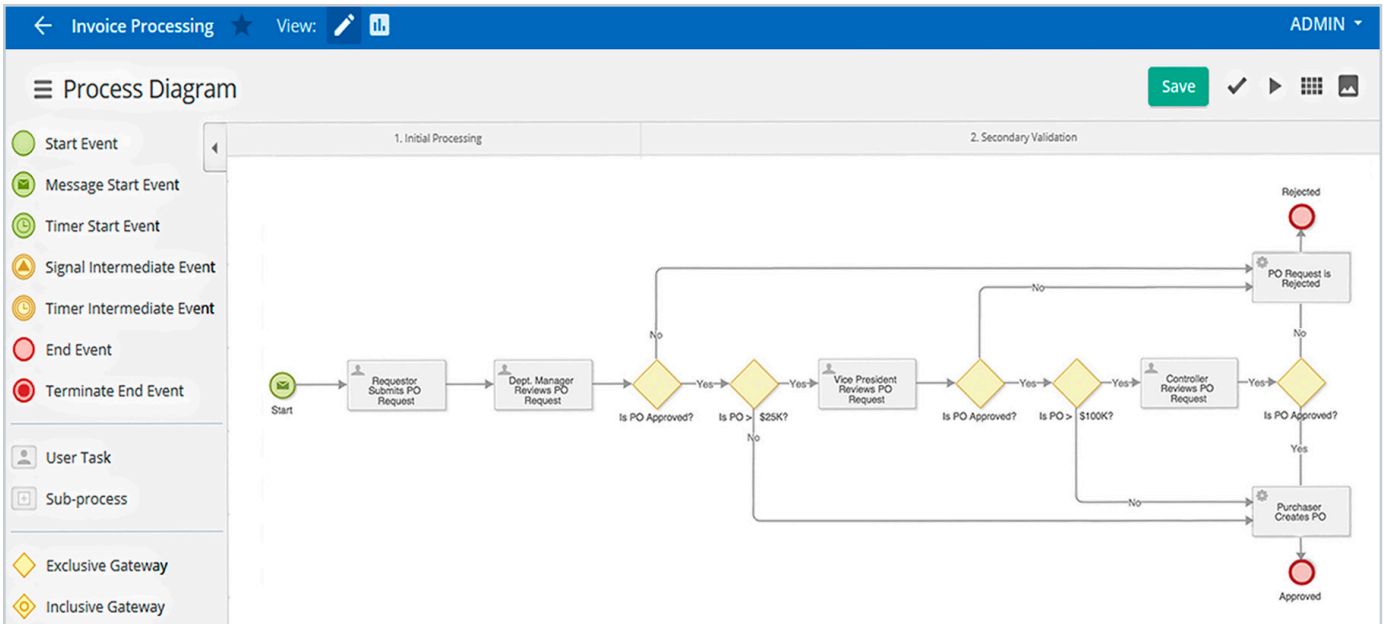

- Easily drag and drop a variety of fields onto your form
- Use a large library of form fields to collect the information you need from submitters
- Accurately collect data using fields that dynamically display based on previous responses
- Personalize your form with custom colors, fonts and logos
- Upload supplemental documents directly from the form
- Automatically calculate useful data such as invoice totals, the age of a form submitter and more using built-in, native formulas
- Maintain records of submitted information by automatically saving completed forms in the Laserfiche repository
- Apply metadata to forms and their attachments once they are saved in the repository

Automate Form Submission, Routing and Review

- Enable authorized employees to create BPMN-compliant process models using drag-and-drop interaction
- Launch processes on a set schedule or after a waiting period
- Reroute a form if a deadline has passed
- Assign or reassign tasks to teams or individual users
- Ensure tasks are completed on time using automatic notifications
- Enhance existing business processes by pushing information and forms into Laserfiche Workflow or the Laserfiche repository
- Review and approve submitted forms from a tablet, smartphone, web browser or email

Create and publish forms with an intuitive forms designer that requires no coding or scripting.

Create BPMN-compliant process diagrams to automate form review and approval.

Centralize Task Management and Increase Process Efficiency

- View all pending tasks, which can be sorted by priority in a dedicated inbox
- Increase transparency with operational dashboards that show the current status and progress of a process
- Quickly configure reports of all submitted forms, pending and completed tasks and approval histories
- Easily monitor employee productivity and identify process bottlenecks with the performance dashboard

Get a Head Start on Automating Common Processes

- Download prebuilt process diagrams, forms and workflows for a variety of common business processes from the Laserfiche Business Process Library
- Minimize initial development effort for common processes such as travel request, expense reimbursement and building maintenance request
- Filter processes by industry or department
- Easily modify process diagrams and forms to fit specific requirements
